

THE SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

SAINT SERAPHIM OF SAROV

JULY 19, 2015

BAPTISM RECEIVED, though a great mystery of God-life shared with man is only a beginning. Life means a source, a fountain of activity, activity, a movement with the purpose of perfecting being. It is not not enough to be engrafted into Christ as His living member. Christian life must bear Christian fruit for the glory of Christ, for the perfection and happiness of the Christian, and for the conquest of the world under the kingship of Christ and the queenship of the Mother of God. Apostolic activity at every level, in every generation, is the mark of Christian vitality.

WELCOME to all our visitors and visitors this morning. There are Service books in the pews for your use. While Holy Communion may only be received by prepared Orthodox Christians, our non-Orthodox guests are welcome to come forward at Communion for a blessing and the pain benit—blessed bread. Please fill out one of the "visitor cards" found in the pew racks and take a moment to sign our guest book in the Narthex! Please join us for Coffee Hour in the Parish Hall (downstairs).

Orthodox Christians must be prepared for Holy Communion through Sacramental Confession, fasting, prayer, and being at peace with others. A prepared person must have been to Confession recently (frequency established by his Pastor), have abstained from food and drink from Midnight and have attended Mass regularly. Please seek and give forgiveness before receiving Communion.

ASKING INTERCESSION FOR OURSELVES AND OTHERS—Lighting Candles in Church FROM our Precious Western Orthodox Heritage

When we enter the church, we first ought to greet the Saints, who are our elder brothers and sisters in Christ. In many parishes you will find statues or icons of Saints with candle stands near the front door or around the Church. You simply light one of the candles and say a short prayer before the statue or icon, and then you kiss the hand or foot of the image.

When we light a candle in front of a Saint's image, we are doing two things. The candle represents us, so we are first reminding ourselves that we are bearers of the Light of Christ. We are also asking for that Saint to pray for us. The candle is, in a real sense, an icon of us.

Knowing this, it is easy to see why there has been from ancient times a keen devotion of "lighting a candle" for someone else who is in need of prayer. In that case we are placing that person in the prayers of that Saint and before Christ. Lighting a candle for someone else is an action of intercession that continues without interruption for many hours or days, for as long as the candle burns. The offering: $3.00 for the large candle that burn all week and 25¢ for the little vigil lights which burn for 6 hours, merely offsets the cost of purchasing them.

The Sanctuary Lamps burn this week for the health and welfare of Eva Hester on her birthday (July 22). Offered by Patty Rendoff.

ST TIMON SUNDAY 2015

Next Sunday is the day set aside to remember our brothers and sisters in Christ of the Archdiocese of Bosra-Hauran in southern Syria, especially Metropolitan Saba and his clergy. It is also the designated day in our Diocese for fundraising for The Hauran Connection. A special offering will be received throughout the month of July.

THANKS TO ALL who have contributed or pledged to our repair fund! If you look up to the choir loft you will see the repair has been made. It is "curing" and will be painted next week. We hope to have all donations in by the end of July. We are also going to have to do some work on our screens in the attic & tower to keep the pigeons out. We have a bid of $1800.00 to do that work and the Council will discuss it soon. Again, many, many thanks!!

Think About It: When a person learns to recognize everyone as better than him/herself, with that humility is attained. St. Sisoies the Great (+429)

THE CHURCH FATHER'S SPEAK: The sinful soul which does not know the Lord fears death, thinking that the Lord will not forgive his/her sins. But this is because the soul does not know the Lord and how greatly He loves us. But if people knew this, then no man would despair, for the Lord not only forgive but rejoices exceedingly at the return of a sinner. Though you be at death's door, believe firmly that the moment you ask, you will receive forgiveness. St. Silouan the Athonite (+1938)
