

THE FOURTH SUNDAY IN ADVENT
DECEMBER 20, 2015

THERE is urgency in the readings and prayers of today's Mass. We ask the Father to "drop" and "rain" the Saviour upon us, the human race, in order that we may "speedily" be delivered. "Come and tarry not!" is our cry, for great indeed is our need for grace and salvation. And He whom we seek to possess and love is also our Judge. And He will save us by our love for neighbors and our impartial zeal for their welfare.

Isaiah 7:14

Following the reception of Holy Communion, it is proper to return to your pew, kneel, and make your Thanksgiving after Communion, (Missal pg. 51 or St. Ambrose Prayer Book pg. 177) If you have not received Holy Communion, you should make a "Spiritual Communion" (St. Ambrose Prayer Book, pg. 187). This is far more spiritually beneficial and preferable to "people-watching."

The Church Father Speak: God allows temptations so that they might rouse us to remember Him. When we call upon Him, He acts as though He does not hear us so that we multiply our supplications and cry out His Holy Name in fear of the various passions. Then, through the pain of the entreaties our heart is sanctified, and through experience we learn the weakness of our human nature. And thus we realize in practice that without God’s help we are not able to do anything. Elder Ephraim of Mt. Athos
