

Christ is risen! Indeed He is risen!

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EASTER
SUNDAY, MAY 22, 2016

JESUS Himself had a limited pilgrimage on earth. Like Him, we are all travelers. Nothing is permanent except heaven. Our happiness and security exist only in loyalty to Christ and to our fellow pilgrims, and in obedience to Christ's representatives—our Bishops. Anyone who attempts to limp sorrowfully and independently along, courts spiritual and eternal disaster. Both sorrow and joy are parts of life, to be taken in stride and consecrated to God. Dedicated grief purifies and redeems. Joy is the overflow of deep, spiritual wellbeing, the mark of the fully developed Christian, the music of virtue, the chant of wise pilgrims pressing homeward to God.

Following the reception of Holy Communion, it is proper to return to your pew, kneel, and make your Thanksgiving after Communion (Missal, pg. 51 or St. Ambrose Prayer Book, pg. 177). If you have not received Holy Communion, you should make a "Spiritual Communion" (St. Ambrose Prayer Book, pg. 187). This is far more spiritually beneficial and preferable to "people-watching."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WELCOME to all our guests and visitors. There are Service Books in the pews for your use. While Holy Communion may be received only by prepared Orthodox Christians, our non-Orthodox guests are welcome to come forward at Communion for a blessing and the pain benit—blessed bread. Please fill out one of the "visitor cards" found in the pew racks and take a moment to sign our guest book in the Narthex! Please join us for Coffee Hour in the Parish Hall (downstairs).

Orthodox Christians must be prepared for Holy Communion through Sacramental Confession, fasting, prayer, and being at peace with others. A prepared person must have been to Confession recently (frequency established by his Pastor), have abstained from food and drink from Midnight and have attended Mass regularly. Please seek and give forgiveness before receiving Communion.

THE SECOND OFFERING is for Patriarch John, X of Antioch. We will be receiving a Second Offering throughout the month of May for the Patriarch. Thank you for your kind offerings for His Beatitude the Patriarch, and his works of mercy.

"INTERFACE" a Catholic/Orthodox convergence

As a part of our ongoing ADULT EDUCATION SERIES and outreach program, we will be offering a conference on Iconography and the Santos tradition. Father Lester Bundy, Ph.D., pastor of St. Columba Antiochian Orthodox Church in Lafayette and former Chair of the Religious Studies Department of Regis University will be our presenter. He has written a book about things that are different and yet have things in common. It is a book about two religious traditions that come from the same source and have a common history. It is also a book about finding things to share and celebrate rather than finding things to fight over. This book celebrates two artistic traditions rich in symbolic beauty. But this book also raises some concerns about the effect of modern technology on ancient practices and conventions in religious art. The book looks at Russian Icons and New Mexican Santos and finds an interesting convergence of two different rich traditions. The event will take place on Saturday, June 4th at 2:00pm and will last about 2 hours.

Think about it: In our days when some politicians prostitute public office or they ally themselves with evil forces, they justify their wickedness on the ground that "they did nothing against the law." The only law for them becomes civil law, and their individual interpretation of it; never do they think of the moral law, the natural law, in their conscience, or the Ten Commandments. Fulton J. Sheen

We have flyers and applications. Please contact Father John for information.

Patristic Wisdom: Even now, people, in the self-delusion of a proud mind which does not contain the truth of Christ, take up stones of opposition to the Lord and cast them at Him. They do not harm Him because He is the Lord, and His truth is immutable. They only destroy themselves. St. Theophan the Recluse (+1894)

THE CHURCH FATHERS SPEAK: Do you want to belong to the society of heaven? Do you want to be a partaker of the blessedness of the Saints? If so, from this point forward enter into relationship with them. When you go forth from the house of the body (death), then they will receive you to themselves as their own acquaintance, as their own friend. St. Ignatius Briachinov (+1867)
