

THE SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
AUGUST 7, 2016

BAPTISM RECEIVED, though a great mystery of God-life shared with man is only a beginning. Life means a source, a fountain of activity, a movement with the purpose of perfecting being. It is not enough to be engrafted into Christ as His living member. Christian life must bear Christian fruit for the glory of Christ, for the perfection and happiness of the Christian, and for the conquest of the world under the kingship of Christ and the queenship of the Mother of God. Apostolic activity at every level, in every generation, is the mark of Christian vitality.

 THE EPISTLE (SIT) Rom. 6:19-23
Consenting to sin makes a person the frightened but fascinated slave to sin. Mortal sin is spiritual death to the soul; and when fixed by death, it means eternal damnation. Freed from sin by Baptism and Christian virtues, the soul remains happily and eternally alive.

 ALLELUIA Ps. 46:2
 THE HOLY GOSPEL (STAND) Matt. 7:15-21
The Christian leader is judged by goodness of life and truth of doctrine, especially by his charity and by his submission to lawful authority. To be obedient is to do God's will.

Following the reception of Holy Communion, it is proper to return to your pew, kneel, and make your Thanksgiving after Communion (Missal, pg. 51 or St. Ambrose Prayer Book, pg. 177). If you have not received Holy Communion, you should make a "Spiritual Communion" (St. Ambrose Prayer Book, pg. 187). This is far more spiritually beneficial and preferable to "people-watching."

Wisdom from the Church Fathers: To uproot sin and the underlying evil in our heart can only be done by divine power, for it is impossible and outside humanity's competence to uproot sin. To struggle, yes, to continue to fight, inflict blows and to receive setbacks is in our power. To uproot however belongs to God alone. If we could have done it on our own, why would the Lord Jesus need to come to save us? For just as an eye cannot see without light, nor can one speak without a tongue, nor hear without ears, nor walk without feet, nor carry on works without hands, so we cannot be saved without Jesus nor enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. St. Makarios the Great (+392)

"DRAGON HART" a new book by Eric and Serena Jerome has just been released! We have a few copies in the Bookstore and you can get your copy also from Amazon.com and Empowerparadigm.com. Congratulations to our parishioners and we all look forward to reading it! Maybe we can have a special book signing!! (see poster in the Parish Hall)

THE HAURAN CONNECTION Thanks to all of you who so generously contributed to this work of charity!

FEAST OF ST. AUGUSTINE: Sunday Aug. 28

This year, the Feast of our Patron Saint, Saint Augustine of Hippo, falls on a Sunday. That is wonderful in that more of our people can be here in Church to celebrate, honour, and ask the intercession of our great Patron before the Throne of God. Make every effort not to excuse yourself from Mass that day. Since it is the last Sunday of the month and is a potluck for Coffee Hour, let's have a wonderful celebratory meal together in honour of St. Augustine!

Think About It: Fathers and mothers—go and lead your child by the hand into the Church. St. John Chrysostom (+407)

INTERNATIONAL ORTHODOX CHRISTIAN CHARITIES 5K Run/Walk will be held at St. Catherine's Greek Orthodox Church on Saturday, August 20. Registration begins at 8:00am, the Run/Walk begins at 8:45 with Blessings of the Loaves at 10am and Lunch at 10:30am. Individual registrations are $30 and Family registration is $45. Register online at (iocc.org/denver). Questions? Contact Elaine Cladis at 303.453.8584. Help IOCC help those who are in need!

Think About It: Every sin does more injury to him who commits it than to him who suffers from it. St. Augustine of Hippo (+430)

CHURCH PICNIC

The Jerome Family has graciously offered to host our Annual Church Picnic at their home! We have had such wonderful times with them before and are grateful to them. The proposed date is Sunday, August 21. Mark your calendars and plan on being there!!

Patristic Wisdom: The human (nuclear) family constitutes the primary and essential element of society. Peace in society will be a direct result of peace in the family. Order and harmony in the secular political realm will be the direct result of the order and harmony which arises out of creative guidance and the giving of real responsibility to children. St. John Chrysostom (+407)

THINK ABOUT IT: Through prayer, persons are cleansed, brightened and sanctified. Elder Amphilochios of Patmos (+1970)

THE CHURCH FATHERS SPEAK: When you are praying alone, and your spirit is dejected and you are wearied and oppressed, remember then, as always, that God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit looks upon you with bright eyes, brighter than the sun; and so do all the angels, including your own guardian, and all the saints. Truly they do, for they are all one in God, and where God is, they are there also. St. John of Kronstadt (+1908)
