

THE ELEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
 THE OCTAVE DAY OF ST. AUGUSTINE OF HIPPO
 SEPTEMBER 4, 2016

ALL of us tend to seek God in proportion to our conscious needs. Before pagans can be drawn to the church, they must be convinced of the need to seek the rich doctrine, worship and ethics Christ deposited in His Church. It is not a sign of weakness to acknowledge one's own blindness and ignorance. It requires instead the strength of truth and the vitality of humility to come to God asking for the light of faith. For only God can reveal the sweep of His own power. Only God, through His apostles, can help the world's millions penetrate the meaning of the Gospels, of Christ's death and resurrection. Through Christian truth, all peoples may learn the truth of their own worth and dignity.

Every Christian is privileged to hold fast, and to announce to others, the good news of the key miracle and mystery: the fact that Christ after dying for mankind, rose again from the dead. Those who spread the tidings of the Saviour's resurrection have as their inspiration, St. Paul, the Apostle to the Gentiles.

WELCOME to all our guests and visitors this morning. There are Service Books in the pews for your use. While Holy Communion may only be received by prepared Orthodox Christians, our non-Orthodox guests are welcome to come forward at Communion for a blessing and the pain benit—blessed bread. Please fill out one of the "visitor cards" found in the pew racks and take a moment to sign our guest book in the Narthex! Please join us for Coffee Hour in the Parish Hall (downstairs).

Orthodox Christians must be prepared for Holy Communion through Sacramental Confession, fasting, prayer, and being at peace with others. A prepared person must have been to Confession recently (frequency established by his Pastor), have abstained from food and drink from Midnight and have attended Mass regularly. Please seek and give forgiveness before receiving Communion.

Our dear friend, Father George Shwareb of St. Elias in Arvada is being elevated to the rank and dignity of Archpriest today. His Grace Bishop Basil will be officiating at the Hierarchical Divine Liturgy at which Father George will receive the pectoral Cross and the title and style: "Very Reverend." AXIOS! He is worthy! KING SOOPERS GIFT CARDS

Many thanks to all of you for your participation in this program. It has been such a blessing for our Parish. If you have yet to participate, please see Debbie Braun or Mary Beth Flory. They will get you going! We made our goal again this month! Let's work hard to do it every month!

The Church Fathers Speak: It is better to be a disciple of a disciple than to live according to your own will. In the writings of the holy fathers they talk about this. It is not shameful to obey the advice of your spiritual father, but rather salvific and indispensable; and he who does not listen to good advice will be punished. St. Ambrose of Optina (+1891)

"DRAGON HART" a new book by our parishioners Eric and Serena Jerome has just been released! We have a few copies in the Bookstore and you can get your copy also from Amazon.com and Empowerparadigm.com. Congratulations to our parishioners and we all look forward to reading it! Maybe we can have a special book signing!! (see poster in the Parish Hall)

Patristic Wisdom: People have to forget the evil that has been done to them. The evil preserved in man's thought grows in his mind and poisons his soul, making his life difficult...Everything is a precious gift. Elder Justin Parvu of Romania (+2013)

Think about it: Doesn't everyone have the right to his own conscience? CONSCIENCE is NOT the same as your opinion or feelings. Conscience cannot be identical with your feelings because conscience is the activity of your intellect in judging the rightness or wrongness of your actions or omissions, past, present, or future, while your feelings should be governed by your intellect and will. Conscience is not identical with your opinions because your intellect bases its judgment upon the natural moral law, which is inherent in your human nature and is identical with the Ten Commandments. Unlike the civil laws made by legislators, or the opinions that you hold, the natural moral law is not anything you invent, but rather discover within yourself and is the governing norm of your conscience. In short, conscience is the voice of truth within you, and your opinions need to be in harmony with that truth. This is the goal of correctly informing and properly forming your conscience.

So how do I get my conscience to be correctly informed and properly formed? As an Orthodox Christian, you have the benefit of the Church's teaching authority which was given to her by Christ. The Church assists us and all people of good will in the understanding of the natural moral law as it relates to specific issues. As an Orthodox Christian, you have the obligation to be correctly informed by the teaching of the Church in conformity with the Holy Scriptures; as for your feelings, the need to be properly formed by virtue so as to be in harmony with the conscience's voice of truth. In this way, you will have a sound conscience, according to which you will feel guilty when you are guilty, and feel morally upright when you are morally upright. We should strive to avoid the two opposite extremes of a lax conscience and a scrupulous conscience. Meeting the obligation of continually attending to this formation of conscience will increase the likelihood that, in the actual operation of activity of conscience, you will act with a certain conscience, which clearly perceives that a given concrete action is a good action that was rightly done or should be done. Being correctly informed and certain in the actual operation of conscience is the goal of the continuing formation of conscience. Otherwise put, you should strive to avoid being incorrectly informed and doubtful in the actual judgment of conscience about a particular action or omission. You should never act on a doubtful conscience.
