

THE FIFTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
OCTOBER 2, 2016

HUMAN weakness requires help in sharing the weight of life's distress. In what manner should one person bear the burdens of another? First of all, there should be compassion—a suffering with—in view of each one's own weakness and many failures. A sense of personal superiority often poisons well-meant pity and renders it worse than useless. Secondly, there should be meekness in any sort of counseling; not ridicule or harshness. Finally, one should begin with persons who are united in Christian belief. All of this charity, done for Christ, who is the greatest bearer of man's burdens, is a continual spiritual sowing for an eternal harvest.

Following the reception of Holy Communion, it is proper to return to your pew, kneel, and make your Thanksgiving after Communion (Missal, pg. 51 or St. Ambrose Prayer Book, pg. 177). If you have not received Holy Communion, you should make a "Spiritual Communion" (St. Ambrose Prayer Book, pg. 187). This is far more spiritually beneficial and preferable to "people-watching."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WELCOME to all our guests and visitors this morning. There are Service Books in the pews for your use. While Holy Communion may be received only by prepared Orthodox Christians, our non-Orthodox guests are welcome to come forward at Communion for a blessing and the pain benit—blessed bread. Please fill out one of the "visitor cards" found in the pew racks and take a moment to sign our guest book in the Narthex! Please join us for Coffee Hour in the Parish Hall (downstairs).

Orthodox Christians must be prepared for Holy Communion through Sacramental Confession, fasting, prayer, and being at peace with others. A prepared person must have been to Confession recently (frequency established by his Pastor), have abstained from food and drink from Midnight and have attended Mass regularly. Please seek and give forgiveness before receiving Communion.

Wisdom from the Church Fathers: The gentle soul is a cathedral of goodness; it is a fountain and spring of wisdom watering itself and others with Godly knowledge. St. John Climacus (+649)

THE SANCTUARY LAMPS burn this week to God's honour and glory and for the health and welfare of the following who celebrate birthdays this week: Joy Jerome (10/2), Peter Sutherland (10/2), Patty Clair (10/5), Annie Vanvors (10/7)

Think About it: You have and eat; therefore, give each day to someone who is poor to eat also. Newly-revealed Priest-martyr Raphael of Lesvos (+1463)

OCTOBER: ORTHODOX SEMINARY MONTH

Traditionally, throughout the Month of October, we take a SECOND OFFERING for the support of the Orthodox Schools of Theology in this country where our future priests and leaders are trained. Thank you in advance for your kind support of our Seminaries! Please earmark your contribution "Seminaries" so that it goes to the right place.

CHURCH SCHOOL FOR YOUTH

We are very grateful to Dr. Mark Flory who has graciously volunteered to do classes for our young people every Sunday morning at 9:00am. We invite our parents to make sure that their children are on time and attend.

Think about it: With us everything should be secondary compared to our concern with children, and their upbringing in the instruction and teaching of our Lord. St. John Chrysostom (+407)

OCTOBER: THE MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY

The Month of October has traditionally, in the West, been dedicated to the Holy Rosary. For many years, the Rosary has been recited corporally on the Saturdays of October (after Mass). This devotion to the Mother of God is Scripturally based and helps us to meditate on the events of the lives of Our Lord and His Holy Mother. We hope you join on the Saturdays of October following the morning Mass.

The Church Fathers Speak: Pride does not allow the soul to set out on the path of faith. St. Silouan the Athonite (+1937)

WORLD FOOD DAY, October 16th is sponsored by the Food and Agriculture Organizations of the United States, and was especially designed to heighten public awareness of food and hunger issues around the world. The Antiochian Orthodox Christian Archdiocese of North America is one of the sponsoring organizations for the National Committee for World Food Day. We now join 458 voluntary organizations throughout the United States and 163 countries around the world observing WORLD FOOD DAY! Last year 110 of our Parishes reported participating in this much needed program, with 40 parishes participating all year long. We distributed 418,324 pounds of food within our communities. For 32 years we have pledged our support to our local food banks, and again are asking each Parish to sponsor a CANNED FOOD DRIVE. Please ask your parishioners to bring canned goods to Church between Sunday, October 9th and Sunday, January 1, 2017. 38 million people in North America need our help!

The Church Fathers Speak: He who truly wishes to believe in God must be lifted above himself, his mind, and even the whole world. For this reason, the value of faith is considered higher than the value of man. It is even higher than the value of the whole world. Therefore, the reward of faith should be higher than all of man's possessions along with the glories of this world. The reward of faith is God. Fr. Matthew the Poor (+2006)
