“Rush Hour Concert”

& Solemn Mass

Friday, January 6, 2017 at 5:30pm
Saint Augustine’s Orthodox Church
55 West 3rd Ave. (at Acoma Street)
Denver, CO 80223

Close out the 12 Days of Christmas—the Holiday Season—on the Feast of the Epiphany!

Saint Augustine’s will be the venue for a beautiful “Rush Hour Concert” on Friday, January 6th at 5:30pm. Beat the Rush Hour by listening to lovely music of the season in the elegant old Edwardian Gothic Church of St. Augustine in the Historic Baker neighborhood of Denver—just south of Downtown!

Alexandra Eddy, violin with Don Hilsberg, harp; David Short, cello; Richard Robertson, organ; and Mackenzie Talley, soprano will perform music of Buxtehude, Bach, and Telemann; a new carol by Alexandra Eddy; and some new arrangements of Epiphany/Christmas Carols.

The concert is free and open to the public. A free-will offering will be received to benefit the music program at St. Augustine’s.

All are welcome to stay for the Solemn Mass of the Epiphany at 7:00pm with members of THE AMBROSIAN CHORISTERS, the parish’s resident choral ensemble, singing Vito Carnevali’s charming Missa Gloria in excelsis Deo and other motets, carols and anthems.
