SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EASTER—GOOD SHEPHERD

WITH the memory of Christ's death still vivid in our minds and daily renewed with the commemoration of His passion, death, in each Mass, we know the price of shepherding souls. That divine and dangerous leadership began with Christ. By His command, it must reach across the world to embrace all mankind, until there be but one flock and one shepherd. The inspiring leadership of the successors to the Apostles is the living voice and power of Jesus to each generation. The apostolic voice and witness requires reverent acceptance. The closer we are to the Church and its leaders, the closer we are to Christ Himself.

Following the reception of Holy Communion, it is proper to return to your pew, kneel, and make your Thanksgiving after Communion (Missal, pg. 51 or St. Ambrose Prayer Book, pg. 177). If you have not received Holy Communion, you should make a “Spiritual Communion” (St. Ambrose Prayer Book, pg. 187). This is far more spiritually beneficial and preferable to “people-watching.”

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WELCOME to all our guests and visitors. There are Service Books in the pews for your use. While Holy Communion may be received only by prepared Orthodox Christians, our non-Orthodox guests are welcome to come forward at Communion for a blessing and the pain benit—blessed bread. Please fill out one of the “visitor cards” found in the pew racks and take a moment to sign our guest book in the Narthex! Please join us for Coffee Hour in the Parish Hall (downstairs).

Orthodox Christians must be prepared for Holy Communion through Sacramental Confession, fasting, prayer, and being at peace with others. A prepared person must have been to Confession recently (frequency established by his Pastor), have abstained from food and drink from Midnight and have attended Mass regularly. Please seek and give forgiveness before receiving Communion.

THOSE WHO NEED OUR PRAYERS

Please pray for: Robert Jostmeyer, Samantha Baca, Michael McDonald, Nate Munro, Father James Forseo, John Palucha, Joan Garver, Mike Conley & family, Adel Mikhail, Tammy Hurtado, Claire Emmons, Stan Wallace, Traudel Schroad Gunter, John May, Larry Stokes, Ria Furr, Monica Enright, Jackie Huttenhoff, Paul Schroeder, Cece Scott, Charles Raines, Megan Hines, Lily Calderon, Phyllis Roberts, Sue Stanko, Robert Phillips, the suffering Christians in Syria and the Middle East, Maria Palucha, Margie Palucha, Metropolitan Boulos of Aleppo, Metropolitan Mar Gregorios Yohanna Ibrahim of Aleppo, Kh. Angelina Keiser, Nate Redman, Aaron Rendoff, Vanessa Taylor, Jim Sanders.

THE SANCTUARY LAMPS are offered this week for the health and welfare of those celebrating anniversaries in April. A gift from Patty Rendoff.

Wisdom from the Church Fathers: Jesus Christ, the King of Heaven and earth lived in poverty and obtained His daily necessities through His own labor. So, we also must be industrious and content with what God has given us and not be consumed with desire for riches. St. Innocent of Alaska (+1879)

THANKS TO ALL OF YOU!

Christ is risen! I want to take this opportunity to thank all of you for the many contributions to the beauty of Holy Week and Pascha. The servers who assisted me at the Altar; our choir, chanters, organists, directors, and orchestral musicians who made the services so sublime; those who cleaned, those who decorated, cooked, contributed to the flower and orchestral fund and those who helped in so many ways. I also want to thank all of you who remembered me. The many cards, gifts and good wishes were so very much appreciated. God bless you all and have a glorious Paschaltide!

Rt. Rev'd John A. Mangels

FOOD FOR HUNGRY PEOPLE

Please bring your alms boxes or checks today or next Sunday for the FFHP drive 2017. Thanks to everyone who participated in this annual drive for the needy throughout the world.

Think About It: It is good to remember the great tribulations of the human life, so that the hardened and insensitive soul is softened and comes to the realization of its own sinful state. St. Dorotheos of Gaza (+565)

THE SECOND OFFERING is for Patriarch John, X of Antioch. We will be receiving a Second Offering for two weeks for the Patriarch. Thank you for your kind offerings for His Beatitude the Patriarch, and his works of mercy.

Patristic Wisdom: The beginning of all passions is egoism, and the end of all is pride. Egoism is the foolish love for the material world including our own body. In severing egoism, the rest of the passions that emanate from it are also severed. St. Maximos the Confessor (+662)

A WORD ABOUT EASTERTIDE

PASCHA (Easter) is the greatest Feast of the year, for Christ is risen! The "alleluia," which was silenced from the Mass since Septuagesima Sunday, returned at The Vigil on Holy Saturday, and is now heard after every Introit, Antiphon verse, and response. The Vidi Aquam replaces the Asperges me at High Mass, and the Regina Cæli replaces the Angelus. The Paschal Candle remains lit in the Sanctuary until Ascension Thursday, representing the Light of the Risen Christ and Christ among the disciples for 40 days after Pascha.

During this Season, we are obliged to receive the Holy Eucharist to fulfill the Church precept that we receive the Eucharist at least once a year. During Lent, most of us have already fulfilled the precept to go to Confession at least once a year, but if we haven't, we can and should absolutely do that now.

During Easter, we greet each other (and even answer our telephones) with the triumphant "Christus resurrexit!" (Christ is risen!) to which comes the response "Surrexit vere!" (Indeed He is risen!). This joyous greeting totally crystallizes the mood of this season. This triumphant attitude is also shown by the replacing of the Angelus with the Regina Cæli throughout Paschaltide. Within the Antiochian Orthodox Patriarchate, those who fasted during Lent are dispensed from fasting until Ascension Thursday.

UPCOMING EVENTS AT ST. AUGUSTINE'S

Please mark your calendars for the following events:

- Thursday, May 25th is the Feast of the Ascension of Our Lord. Mass will be at 7:00pm
- PENTECOST SUNDAY, June 4th High Mass at 10:00am

THE CHURCH FATHERS SPEAK: Do you want to belong to the society of heaven? Do you want to be a partaker of the blessedness of the Saints? If so, from this point forward enter into relationship with them. When you go forth from the house of the body (death), then they will receive you to themselves as their own acquaintance, as their own friend. St. Ignatius Briachiniov (+1867)
