

Christ is risen! Indeed He is risen!

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EASTER
SUNDAY, MAY 7, 2017

JESUS Himself had a limited pilgrimage on earth. Like Him, we are all travelers. Nothing is permanent except heaven. Our happiness and security exist only in loyalty to Christ and to our fellow pilgrims, and in obedience to Christ's representatives—our Bishops. Anyone who attempts to limp sorrowfully and independently along, courts spiritual and eternal disaster. Both sorrow and joy are parts of life, to be taken in stride and consecrated to God. Dedicated grief purifies and redeems. Joy is the overflow of deep, spiritual wellbeing, the mark of the fully developed Christian, the music of virtue, the chant of wise pilgrims pressing homeward to God.

Following the reception of Holy Communion, it is proper to return to your pew, kneel, and make your Thanksgiving after Communion (Missal, pg. 51 or St. Ambrose Prayer Book, pg. 177). If you have not received Holy Communion, you should make a “Spiritual Communion” (St. Ambrose Prayer Book, pg. 187). This is far more spiritually beneficial and preferable to “people-watching.”

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WELCOME to all our guests and visitors. There are Service Books in the pews for your use. While Holy Communion may be received only by prepared Orthodox Christians, our non-Orthodox guests are welcome to come forward at Communion for a blessing and the pain benit—blessed bread. Please fill out one of the “visitor cards” found in the pew racks and take a moment to sign our guest book in the Narthex! Please join us for Coffee Hour in the Parish Hall (downstairs).

Orthodox Christians must be prepared for Holy Communion through Sacramental Confession, fasting, prayer, and being at peace with others. A prepared person must have been to Confession recently (frequency established by his Pastor), have abstained from food and drink from Midnight and have attended Mass regularly. Please seek and give forgiveness before receiving Communion.

Think About It: After fulfilling a commandment expect to be tempted: for love of Christ is tested by adversity. St. Mark the Ascetic (5th century)

INQUIRER'S CLASS THIS WEEK ONLY—Thursday, May 11

Our Inquirer's Class this week only will take place on Thursday instead of Tuesday. Father has a conflict. This Class is "THE MYSTERY OF CONFESSION." Even if you have not been coming to the classes, this is a wonderful time to come for a "refresher course" on the Sacrament of Confession. Many still have trouble with this sacrament so come and find out its deeper meaning and importance.

UPCOMING EVENTS AT ST. AUGUSTINE'S

Please mark your calendars for the following events:

- Thursday, May 25th is the Feast of the Ascension of Our Lord. Mass will be at 7:00pm
- PENTECOST SUNDAY, June 4th High Mass at 10:00am

FOOD FOR HUNGRY PEOPLE

Today we conclude the annual FFHP drive. Thanks to everyone who participated in this annual drive for the needy throughout the world.

Patristic Wisdom: Struggle against your passions from the moment they appear in your mind. Take the bull by the horns and fight against them with all your strength, because if you do not, they will become habits and get entrenched in you. Eventually they will seem to be completely normal to you and not passions at all, and then your struggle will be extremely difficult. St. Sergei of Vanves (+1987)

THE SECOND OFFERING is for Patriarch John, X of Antioch. We will be receiving a Second Offering for two weeks for the Patriarch. Thank you for your kind offerings for His Beatitude the Patriarch, and his works of mercy.

Think about it: In our days when some politicians prostitute public office or they ally themselves with evil forces, they justify their wickedness on the ground that "they did nothing against the law." The only law for them becomes civil law, and their individual interpretation of it; never do they think of the moral law, the natural law, in their conscience, or the Ten Commandments. Fulton J. Sheen

LILY CALDERON UPDATE

As you all know, Lily Calderon has been in declining health for some time. Father John visited her during Easter Week to bring her Communion. She was doing very well and was quite alert, sitting up enjoying herself and asking about everyone at Church. She wanted everyone to know how grateful she is for prayers, and cards. This week she has not been doing so well. Father visited her on Friday and while cheerful and alert (she made all of the responses!), she was quite tired and in bed. Please continue to keep our dear Lily in your thoughts and prayers.

ETERNAL REST

We wish to express our condolences and sympathy to Mother Sophia on the death of her younger brother, Gene Schoff. May he rest in peace and grant consolation to Mother Sophia and her family.

Patristic Wisdom: Even now, people, in the self-delusion of a proud mind which does not contain the truth of Christ, take up stones of opposition to the Lord and cast them at Him. They do not harm Him because He is the Lord, and His truth is immutable. They only destroy themselves. St. Theophan the Recluse (+1894)

THE HOLY FIRE FROM JERUSALEM

As many of you know, a miracle happens every year on Holy Pascha at the Church of the Holy Sepulcher in Jerusalem. The Orthodox Patriarch goes into the Tomb of Christ to pray and miraculously, the candles are lit and the Patriarch emerges singing "Christ is risen!" And the fire literally dances over the heads of the faithful gathered there lighting their candles. Father Theodore brought us the Holy Fire from Jerusalem which came to us by way of Russia, Cleveland, Detroit and now here. It will enkindle our Sanctuary Lamp and vigil candles through the coming year!

THE CHURCH FATHERS SPEAK: Upon awakening from sleep—an image of being raised from the dead at the Second Coming of Christ—direct your thoughts to God, offering up to Him the first daily thoughts of your mind, which has not yet become imprinted with any vain impressions St. Ignatius Briachininov (+1867)
