

THE FOURTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
SEPTEMBER 10, 2017

GOD made the human body sacred and beautiful, the procreator with God of new life, the instrument by which Christ redeemed all mankind, the essential implement of zealous apostles, the very temple of the Trinity, destined to be resurrected and glorified. On earth, however, the body is not to be idolized or pampered, not to be served as a domineering tyrant. Left to itself, each bodily instinct seeks its own satisfaction, often to the harm of the whole person. Restraint controls the body and frees the soul for joy in living Christian ideals.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WELCOME to all our guests and visitors this morning. There are Service Books in the pews for your use. While Holy Communion may be received only by prepared Orthodox Christians, our non-Orthodox guests are welcome to come forward at Communion for a blessing and the pain benit—blessed bread. Please fill out one of the "visitor cards" found in the pew racks and take a moment to sign our guest book in the Narthex! Please join us for Coffee Hour in the Parish Hall (downstairs).

Orthodox Christians must be prepared for Holy Communion through Sacramental Confession, fasting, prayer, and being at peace with others. A prepared person must have been to Confession recently (frequency established by his Pastor), have abstained from food and drink from Midnight and have attended Mass regularly. Please seek and give forgiveness before receiving Communion.

COLLECTION FOR HURRICANE HARVEY RELIEF

Throughout the month of September, we will receive a second offering for the Archdiocesan Hurricane Relief Program. Several of our parishes were impacted by the terrible storm. Thank you for your generosity. We received another letter from the Metropolitan which will be read in Church today concerning this urgent relief and ongoing crisis with Hurricane Irma.

Patristic Wisdom: It is necessary to repent for not sufficiently loving others and for not being sensitive enough to the misfortunes of others. St. Sergei of Vanves (+1987)

THE SAINT AUGUSTINE INSTITUTE 2017-2018

In the next few weeks we hope to publish a brochure detailing the 2017-2018 Adult Education Program for our parishioners and friends. We have had some moderate success with the program over the last two years featuring occasional lectures by a number of people on a number of topics. We hope that publishing a schedule will ensure greater participation by all of our adult members and friends. Having the brochure will give us an instrument whereby we can invite others to participate. "Knowledge comes only with humility before the object which can bring us truth." +FJS

The Church Fathers Speak: If you believe that God makes provisions for you, why are you anxious and concerned about temporal matters and the needs of your flesh? But if you do not believe God makes provisions for you, and for this reason you are at pains to provide for your needs apart from Him, you are the most miserable of all persons. St. Isaac the Syrian (+700)

NOTE: "PRAY BRETHERN"

You will notice that we have printed the response to "Pray Brethren" which comes immediately after the Offertory of the Mass, in the bulletin—in red. There are a number of different "variations" of the translation that are in various publications. Please use the one in red, in the bulletin.

COFFEE HOUR HOSTS

Thanks to all of our Coffee Hour hosts. It is just wonderful that we have so many participating in this ministry of hospitality to our brothers and sisters and guests. Please sign up for the September Sundays!

Patristic Wisdom: It isn't merely enough to love one another. We must love the other more than ourselves. Think of a mother who loves her children more than she loves herself. She will stay hungry to feed her children, yet she feels greater pleasure than they do. The children are fed materially, but she is fed spiritually. St. Paisios the Athonite (+1994)
