

THE SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST OCTOBER 1, 2017

LOVE is man's first and constant vocation. Love is the summary of the entire Bible. Love is the secret of the saints, the necessary way to God. It is the means to reveal God's heart to others. But the beauty of God's love must show itself fresh and new in every Christian; for beauty, to delight and attract, must be fresh as the morning. Every deed of vital love, performed by us in our personality which nature and grace have fashioned, is like the morning of time itself.

"God is love" (1 John 4:8) in its mysterious fullness and infinite freshness. Utterly King and Lord, He unites the baptized of every nation in the one Mystical Body of Christ, by the One Holy Spirit under the mantle of the Mother of God.

Following the reception of Holy Communion, it is proper to return to your pew, kneel, and make your Thanksgiving after Communion (Missal, pg. 51 or St. Ambrose Prayer Book, pg. 177). If you have not received Holy Communion, you should make a "Spiritual Communion" (St. Ambrose Prayer Book, pg. 187). This is far more spiritually beneficial and preferable to "people-watching."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WELCOME to all our guests and visitors this morning. There are Service Books in the pews for your use. While Holy Communion may be received only by prepared Orthodox Christians, our non-Orthodox guests are welcome to come forward at Communion for a blessing and the pain benit—blessed bread. Please fill out one of the "visitor cards" found in the pew racks and take a moment to sign our guest book in the Narthex! Please join us for Coffee Hour in the Parish Hall (downstairs).

Orthodox Christians must be prepared for Holy Communion through Sacramental Confession, fasting, prayer, and being at peace with others. A prepared person must have been to Confession recently (frequency established by his Pastor), have abstained from food and drink from Midnight and have attended Mass regularly. Please seek and give forgiveness before receiving Communion.

Wisdom from the Church Fathers: If you completely fulfill the commandment to love your neighbor, you will feel no bitterness or resentment against him, no matter what he does. If this is not the case, then you still seek after transitory things and prefer them over the commandment to love. St. Maximus the Confessor (+662)

WORLD FOOD DAY, October 16th is sponsored by the Food and Agriculture Organizations of the United States, and was especially designed to heighten public awareness of food and hunger issues around the world. Patristic Wisdom: If we want to ask a favor from a person of power, we approach with humility and respect. How much more ought we approach the Lord and God of all things. St. Benedict of Nursia (+547)

Think about it: The humble person is embarrassed with praise because he knows that his voice, his talents or his power come to him from God. +Fulton J. Sheen

HURRICANE AND EARTHQUAKE RELIEF

We want to thank our parishioners who contributed $750.00 for the various relief programs sponsored by the Archdiocese. We can always count on our people to respond generously to appeals like this.

OCTOBER: THE MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY

The Month of October has traditionally, in the West, been dedicated to the Holy Rosary. For many years, the Rosary has been recited corporally on the Saturdays of October (after Mass). This devotion to the Mother of God is Scripturally based and helps us to meditate on the events of the lives of Our Lord and His Holy Mother. We hope you join us on the Saturdays of October following the morning Mass.
