

Announcements

Sunday School: A new, multi-age Sunday School program begins today, led by Dorette Sumner. The Teacher and students will receive Holy Communion first, and then go to their class. All children age 3 and above are welcome!

Holy Communion: Please allow the Sunday School children and teacher to receive Holy Communion first, so that they may have time for their class.

Inquirer's Class: We welcome all who are interested in learning more about the Orthodox Christian faith to join us for the weekly Inquirer's Class, taught by Dom Theodore, and for the sung Compline that follows.

Upcoming

Thursday	July 12	6:30 p.m.	Rosary Adult Inquirer's Class
		7:45 p.m.	Sung Compline*
Sunday	July 15	10:00 a.m.	Terce* & Mass
		11:15 a.m.	Sunday School
		11:45 a.m.	Coffee Hour
			Team 3: Patty, Alexandra, Annie, & Ashley

Next Sunday, July 15, we hope to have a full celebration of Holy Mass, with the Very Rev. Stephen Herney, Obl.SB, Pastor of St. Nicholas Church, Spokane, as our celebrant. He will be attending the Oblate Retreat at the Monasteries and has agreed to come to Denver with Dom Theodore in order to offer us this precious gift!

*Brief, daily services of prayer, known as the Divine Office. They consist of a Hymn, Psalms, and Prayers as arranged by St. Benedict in his monastic Rule, c. 542 A.D. At one time, these services were very much a part of the daily life of Orthodox Christians. Compline is Night Prayer; Terce is the Biblical Third Hour of the day, the time at which the Holy Spirit descended at Pentecost.

For information or inquiries, please contact Abbot Theodore at:
55 West Third Avenue
Denver, CO 80223
719-371-6345
monk.theodore@gmail.com

The Parish of Saint Augustine

Pentecost VI

July 8, 2018

Antiochian Orthodox Christian Archdiocese of North America,
Western-rite Vicariate:

His Beatitude John X, Patriarch
His Eminence Joseph, Metropolitan Archbishop
His Grace John, Vicar Bishop for the Western Rite
The Rev. Abbot Theodore, Interim Pastor
Mr. Frank Slechta, Director of Music

We welcome you in the Name of our Lord, Jesus Christ!

St. Augustine's is a parish of the Antiochian Orthodox Patriarchate, founded in Antioch (where the disciples were first called Christians, Acts 11:26) by St. Peter the Apostle. Now headquartered in Damascus, Syria, the Antiochian Church has faithful on every continent and is one of the 14 autocephalous, or "self-ruling" jurisdictions of the Orthodox Church. Since the middle of the last century, we have been blessed to have a number of Orthodox parishes which worship according to the ancient Roman Liturgy of St. Peter & St. Gregory, rather than the Byzantine Liturgy used by most Orthodox faithful throughout the world.

There are booklets in the pews to assist you in participating in today's worship, along with Music folders and Hymnals. While we are in an interim between resident Priests, our Sunday worship consists of two parts: (1) The Office of Terce (meaning the "Third Hour"), a short service of Psalms and prayers; and, (2) The Mass of the Presanctified, consisting of the Liturgy of the Word, and the Administration of Holy Communion, consecrated ahead of time by an Orthodox Priest and distributed here by a Deacon.

In Orthodox worship, various portions of the service are done by different ministers: clergy and assistants, chanters and/or choir, and the congregation. Participation includes both active speaking and singing, physical postures and gestures, and "active listening," in which the mind and heart are silently joined to what is being said, sung, or done.

Reception of Holy Communion is reserved to baptized Orthodox Christians who have properly prepared themselves through prayer, fasting, and a recent confession before an Orthodox Priest. We invite our non-Orthodox guests to come to the Altar-rail for a blessing and to receive the pain benit, a non-consecrated bread that has been blessed and is offered as a sign of fellowship.

We hope that everyone will join us for Coffee Hour downstairs in the Parish Hall following the Mass!

For we know that our old self has been crucified with him, in order that the body of sin may be destroyed, that we may no longer be slaves to sin.

—Romans 6:6

Today's Lessons

Epistle Romans 6:3-11
Gospel Mark 8:1-9

Today's Music

Missa de Angelis Music Folder
Offertory Hymn #195, Rendez a Dieu
Concluding Hymn #293, Doncaster

All are encouraged to join in singing the above.

Prelude Andante moderato, Joseph Rheinberger
Communion Motet O Salutaris Hostia, Jean-Marie Plum, O.S.M.

O, Saving Victim, Who expandest the door of heaven, Hostile armies press, Give strength; bear aid.

To the One and Triune Lord, May there be everlasting glory; may he who gives life without end to us give in our homeland. Amen.

Postlude Fugue in G minor, J.S. Bach

Today's Sermon

"How many loaves have you?" Abbot Theodore

Of your charity, please pray for:

Reagan, Madyson, & Noah Bennett; Peter Sutherland; Eric Willet; Victoria Loop; Loretta Gosse; Gerald Near; Elizabeth Farr; June Huang; Nancy Douglas Gale; Erin Lefke; Charles Rubey; Marta Lewis; Brian Glass; Ruth Sanchez; Phyllis Roberts; Jim Sanders; the suffering Christians of Syria and all the Middle East; the kidnapped Metropolitan Boulos of Aleppo and Mar Gregorios of Aleppo; the Monasteries of Our Lady & St. Laurence and the Annual Benedictine Oblate Retreat, July 13-16.

And for:

The Anniversary of Neville & Patricia Gaggiani (July 5), in whose honor the Sanctuary Light is donated by Patricia Rendoff.